Principal's Message

Mr. Philip F. Flaherty

Once again it is time to say farewell to a graduating class, in this case the Class of 1988.

In many ways this graduation marks the end of an era for the school. The Class of 1988 is the last class of over two hundred members which will graduate in the foreseeable future; its passing makes us a much smaller school, a school which is bound to change in many ways during the next few years.

It is our hope that you have enjoyed your years here and that you have taken full advantage, as individuals, of the many opportunities for personal growth and intellectual development. We are happy in the certain knowledge that many of you leave us extraordinarily well prepared for the tasks you are about to undertake.

Take with you, then, our congratulations on your successes here and our best wishes for a successful and rewarding future.

Assistant Principal's Message

Mr. Charles W. Flahive

From your nervous arrival just four short years ago, you quickly became a part of the unique atmosphere and excitement at the high school. Your dedication to excellence and commitment to excel quickly became evident not only in the classroom but in athletics, theatre, music, student government, and a wide array of activities.

I was especially impressed by the leadership that emerged and the manner in which your class officers and student government worked to maintain and improve the quality of life at Westwood High School. Your positive contributions and pursuits enhanced the reputation of our school and community and left an excellent model for future classes.

I am grateful for your support and urge you to remain active as alumni. Cherish your memories and preserve your friendships.

"Age Quod Agis"

President's Message

"... And finally to my friends, the Class of 1988, I want to wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors. I hope your senior year has been as enjoyable as mine. We have risen above much adversity and will continue to do so on our own. Don't forget the friendships you have developed during these past four years. I'll now leave you with these words: 'Never strive for the silver or bronze while the gold is in your reach.' Good-bye, good-luck, and I'll see you in five years!"

Jill Gary

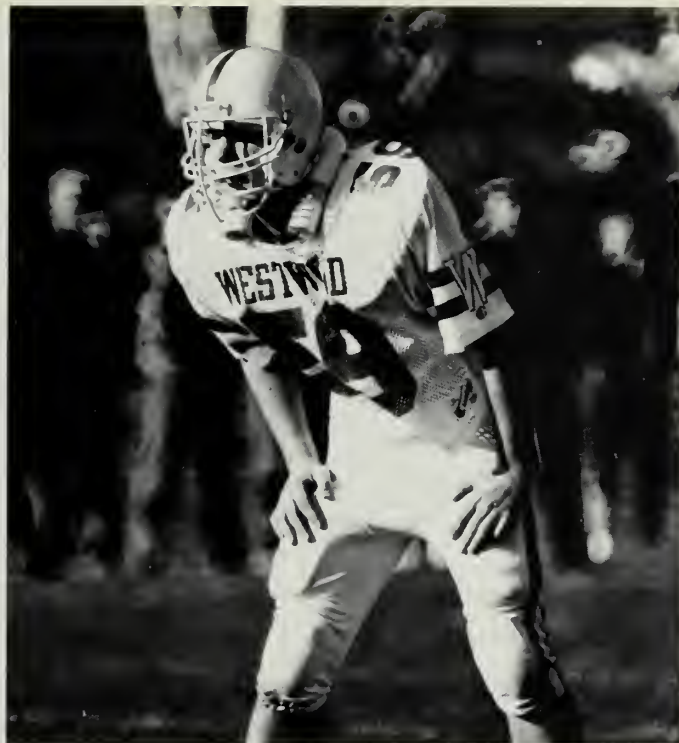

Valedictorian's Message

"... Each person's individual efforts and achievements provide a solid foundation for the vitality and prosperity of a society. Therefore, as every organ has its own function in the overall working of a human system, so too must each of us have his own function or duty in the general support, prosperity, and benefit of our society. Because each person contributes directly to the overall working of the society, individual effort is extremely important; thus each person really can make a difference. Such must be our attitude toward problems in our world today; our own individual efforts are what constitute our society and are the only substance from which solutions can be forged. Without personal achievements, a prospering community cannot exist. With these achievements, on the other hand, prospering societies can exist and can work toward advancing the concept that man's purpose in life is to create and produce for his and future generations . . ."

Central Administration

Dr. Robert J. Monson
Superintendent

Westwood had a new superintendent in September 1987! After many months of searching and interviewing by the School Committee, Dr. Robert J. Monson of Beechwood, Ohio, was appointed to this important position. The entire community - parents, students, staff - are looking forward to a period of new educational challenges and growth.

Dr. William Pendell
Director

Ms. Carol Armstrong

Mrs. Donna Watkins
Metco Coordinator

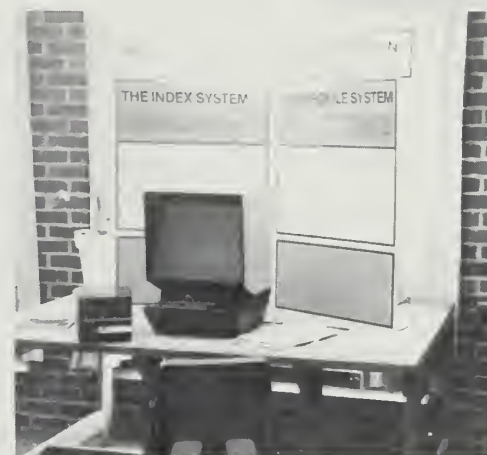

Under the direction of Dr. William Pendell, the Guidance Department had the responsibility of scheduling the student body and helping upperclassmen choose a school. Our thanks go to guidance counselors Mr. Thomas Hughes, Mrs. Carole Armstrong, and Ms. Cheryl Hogan. Special thanks from the Class of 1988 also go to Mrs. Lorraine Brinton, school psychologist, and Mrs. Donna Watkins, Metco Coordinator.

Faculty

Whether it is reading a page at top speed, publishing newsworthy events, arguing a point of poetic controversy, unravelling Shakespeare, or exploring the themes in literature, students are introduced to a wealth of diversity and teaching excellence in the Department of English at Westwood High School. The creative approach to instruction in grammar, literature, and composition encourages not only writing, reading, and relating in the classroom but also watching films, listening to music or discovering artistic masterpieces. However, the underlying strength of the English department lies in its faculty's keen interest in and devotion to the intellectual growth of students. You will find them mentoring in English Seminar, coordinating National Honor Society and other activities, organizing exchange programs or foreign trips, and the list goes on. It is the enthusiasm and dedication of its members that have helped make the English Department at Westwood High School truly outstanding.

Mr. Harvey Fischler

Mr. Raymond Kodzis

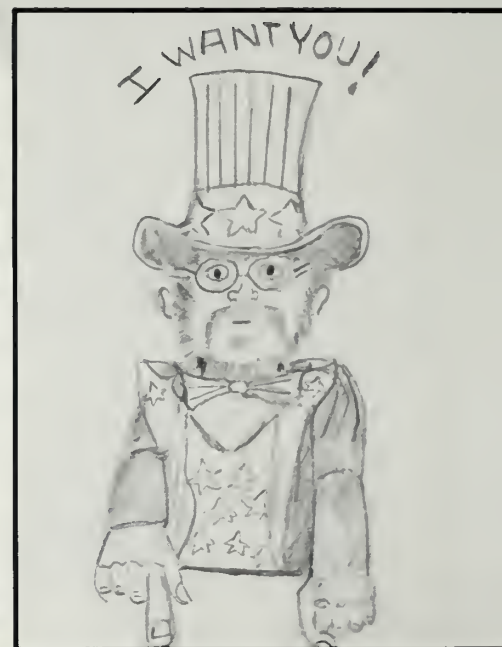

The Westwood High Mathematics Department, headed by Mr. James Pender, challenged students in all realms and levels of study, from Algebra One through Advanced Placement Calculus. Faculty and advanced students were always around for review, help, and independent study in the Math Seminar Room. Of course, Mr. Greene's computer room always kept its doors open. Our sincere thanks to the diligent and hardy math staff from the Class of 1988.

HISTORY

Under the direction of Mr. William Davis, the Social Studies Department guided us from the Stone Age to Watergate. Courses ranged from European History to Chinese Civilization to Economics. Especially bright will be our memories of U.S. History, taught by Mr. Thomas Brown and Miss Priscilla Congdon during junior year. Senior year was highlighted with the offering of a new Government and Politics class, as well as having the opportunity to take traditional favorites such as Psychology and Sociology.

The Science Department, directed by Dr. John Griffin, provided students with a diverse choice of courses to select from, which included Physical Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics—all offered at different levels to suit the individual. Students were also encouraged annually to participate in the Science Fair. Best wishes to all the teachers in this excellent and dedicated department, especially to Mrs. JoAnn Staiti, Mr. Peter Geary, and Mr. Wayne Relleva, who were new additions to the scientific team this year.

ART

Mr. William Delsignore
Director

The Art Department offers students an opportunity to express their creative abilities in a wide variety of ways. It offers courses such as Fine Arts, Art History, Drawing and Painting, and Ceramics. Under the direction of Mr. Thomas Delsignore, the art faculty, including Mr. Michael Milan, Mrs. Judith DesPres, and Mrs. Carol Holder, was instrumental in helping students with individual projects in the visual arts.

Mrs. Carol Holder

MUSIC

Mr. James Giurleo
Director

Under the direction of Mr. James Giurleo, the Music Department continued to grow in new and exciting ways while maintaining its long held traditions. Many new courses were offered this year such as Honors Music Listening, a course which enabled more of the student body to participate in music. This year the Concert Band and Orchestra were led by Mr. Giurelo; the Double Quartet, the Glee Club, and the Chorale by Mrs. Maija Gray, and the Fine Arts and Music Program were taught by Miss Frances Trisorio. After a successful season, the Marching Band was selected to perform in Florida in the spring. Many thanks to all the dedicated music instructors.

SERVICES

Special Education

Under the direction of Mrs. Susan Bornstein, the Special Services at Westwood High provided the necessary assistance for those students with learning disabilities and for those with a need for support services in order to be more successful in the classroom. The Class of 1988 thanks this faithful staff for its hard work and devotion to this program.

Learning Center

Mrs. Carol Rosengarten, Mrs. Anna Runci, and aides, Mrs. Ann Mullen and Mrs. Christine Mullen, helped students with learning disabilities meet the academic demands at Westwood High. We offer special thanks to this dedicated group.

Resource Room

Mrs. Jeanne Connolly and aide, Mrs. Mary Messina, and Mrs. Ann Matteson, along with aide Mrs. Susan Scales, provided assistance to students whose personal and educational needs were met in their self-contained school environment. A super thanks to these staff members!

LANGUAGES

Mrs. Elaine Doucette
Dept. Chairman

The Foreign Language Department offers comprehensive courses in Spanish, French, Latin and German. Reading, writing, understanding, and speaking are all emphasized. In the process of learning a foreign language, students also have the opportunity to study about a country's culture thus broadening their language experiences. The Class of '88 extends its thanks to this enthusiastic and dedicated department.

The courses in Industrial Technology are taught by Mr. Lawrence Rettman, department chairman, Mr. Thomas Nelson and Mrs. Lisa Bowler. Students learn about electricity and electronics, mechanical drawing, metalworking, wood working, architecture and graphic arts. Skills are extended and perfected by hands-on and practical experiences. An extra thanks is extended to the advanced students in Graphic Arts who are responsible for much of the printing for special school events.

HOME EC.

Ms. Jane Gopan

Ms. Jane Gopan taught courses in Foods, Sewing, and Child Growth. She did a fine job filling in for Mrs. Arnold, who was on maternity leave. Good Luck from the Class of 1988.

Over the years, the Business Department has helped to prepare many students for college or for careers in the business world. Under the enthusiastic guidance of Mrs. Irene Dhosi, Mrs. Natalie Carey, and Miss Mary Conroy, students are offered courses such as typing, shorthand, word processing, business law, and accounting. Students will be able to utilize those skills for many years to come.

Mr. Joseph Gearon
Athletic Director

Under Mr. Joseph's Gearon's leadership the Physical Education Department offered the student body a varied and rigorous curriculum and promoted physical fitness and good sportmanship. Students completed course requirements by being able to choose from a variety of electives, such as yoga, handball, volleyball, aerobics, weight training, badminton. Miss Susan Peters, Miss Elizabeth Rice, Mr. Russell Downes, Mr. Paul Tucelli and Mr. Don MacGillivray, trainer, all enthusiastically encouraged us in the above.

MEDIA CENTER

Mrs. Mary Bishop

Westwood High has an excellent library and media center! Mrs. Virginia McCoubrey's and Mrs. Bishop's ever willingness to help makes researching a less tedious and more interesting assignment. An extensive collection of books, reference materials, magazines, and newspapers are always available as are other numerous library services. Mr. Eugene Swezey oversees the audio-visual area, and with his assistance classroom instruction can take on an added dimension, lending more interest and excitement to many academic areas.

88 YEARS OF SERVICE TO WESTWOOD

36 years in Westwood

37 years total as teacher

Mr. William Davis started teaching at WHS in 1952. In 1958 he was appointed department head of the Social Studies Department, and it was during this tenure that he introduced the Advanced Placement Program. In 1976 he resigned from that position in order to devote himself to teaching, his first love. His dedication and devotion to young people is also reflected by other positions he assumed while at WHS. He was an assistant football coach for seven years and basketball coach, also for a period of seven years. In 1985 he was again appointed to the position of department head. Mr. Davis can surely be regarded as an exemplary teacher, noted for his warmth and caring, hard work and love of learning, an attribute he instilled in his students. We will ceratinly miss you, Mr. Davis. Westwood has benefited in a myriad of ways from your contributions as a dedicated educator.

Mrs. Dorothy Saltmarsh

23 years in Westwood

After having dedicated twenty-three years of service to the students of Westwood High, Mrs. Saltmarsh is retiring at the end of the year. As a respected member of the Science Department, Mrs. Saltmarsh has always considered students' needs and the need to intellectually stimulate and challenge students as top priorities. Her good nature, her talent and energy will be missed by students and staff alike. Thank you, Mrs. Saltmarsh, for being such a good teacher and a good friend.

Mr. Gail Thwing

29 years in Westwood

30 years total as teacher

Mr. Gail Thwing, another respected member of the Science Department, is also retiring at the end of this year. Mr. Thwing, however, is not completely retiring as he will be pursuing another career in the business field. He will best be remembered for Marine Biology, a course which he uniquely made his own - one that was interesting and fascinating. His tenure at WHS was varied. He began a C.P.R. program and served seven years as an assistant basketball coach and eleven years as varsity basketball coach. He was also the golf coach for a period of several years. We extend our sincere thanks for his years of dedicated service to the youth of Westwood. We will miss you.

NO PARENTHESIS

Front Row (L to R): R. Nandi, M. Davis, J. Friedman, G. Sudduth. Back Row (L to R): Mr. W. Chatterton, D. Pariseau, B. Rosenblad, K. Driscoll, S. Corcoran, S. Harkness, L. Duffy, M. Sharma, Mr. M. Milan.

As Westwood High School's only literary magazine, No Parentheses has a duty to live up to its name. With the timely advice of Mr. Milan and Mr. Chatterton, the entire No Parentheses staff devotes itself to the publication of student literature and illustrations. While it is creativity that drives people to write, we like to think that this magazine helps to motivate inspiration. This year's winter issue can rightly boast as being among the best printed to date. Also, besides including the prose, poetry, and art from all four grades, winners in each category are designated. No Parentheses is more than just a way of life—it's a state of mind.

DEBATING CLUB

In the past, the Debating Club has debated national issues like capital punishment and euthanasia. This year we have been turning our sights to more local and school issues. With the recent bad press Westwood High School has received concerning teenage drinking parties, we chose to debate the fairness behind the press and the problem as a whole. We also have debated the new class rank system and the full year for seniors. The most important concept that the club has learned is that issues and problems are neither black nor white. Everyone's opinion counts.

CADET TEACHERS

Cadet teaching is a voluntary activity in which a student acts as an assistant teacher in a subject of his or her choice. The student usually "teaches" one block out of the eight day schedule. A student can cadet teach any subject from math to ceramics. It's a lot of fun and a great learning experience for both the cadet teacher and his or her "pupils."

L to R: R. Nandi, N. Bride, J. Coen, J. Collins, D. Grady, T. Massaro, C. Nassisi, J. Keller.

ACADEMIC DECATHLON TEAM

Front Row (L to R): R. Nandi, M. Davis, D. Sullivan, Back Row: J. Coen, J. Friedman, N. Bride, J. Collins, L. Duffy, J. Fox, Miss H.J. Dillon.

The Academic Decathlon Team is composed of thirteen team members who compete against other schools in ten categories, ranging from math to economics to speech. The team finished sixth in the regional competition and captured the small school trophy for the second straight year. The state competition took place in late March and the team placed fifth overall in Massachusetts—our best ever. The advisor is Miss H. Joan Dillon and the team members include Jeff Collins (captain), Romell Nandi, Vicki Bruno, Dave Sullivan, Jon Fox, Jen Robicheau, Lynn Duffy, Julie Henigan, Molly McMillin, John Coen, Nancy Bride, Jeff Friedman, and Marc Davis.

NATIONAL MERIT COMMENDED GROUP

John Coen

National Merit is an honor bestowed on a select few. They are recognized for scoring high on the PSAT's. Those who score high enough become semi-finalists and are offered the opportunity to apply to be a finalist. There was only one semi-finalist this year, John Coen, and as a reward for his performance, he with other finalists is eligible for scholarship money.

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the main goals of the WHS Student Council is to "provide an atmosphere of friendship, unity, and cooperation within the high school." Toward this purpose, the 1987-88 year was extremely successful. This very energetic board began the year with Homecoming Week which brought to light the existence of tremendous school spirit. The Halloween and Valentine's Day Dances were both popular activities as Dangerous Papers provided rockin' entertainment. The response to these two events will be a goal for future Councils to match. Three new and very successful ideas originated from this board: voter registration was held to encourage all those eighteen and over to exercise their Constitutional right, the 50/50 raffle was formulated and became a popular event, and the WHS Boxer Shorts were created and produced by the Council. No one's wardrobe was complete if it did not include at least one pair of these distinctive shorts! The Student Council wishes to thank its advisor Mrs. Bowler. Her organizational skills and friendship are valued by all, especially by the officers: President, James Christian; Vice-President, Steve Lane; Treasurer, Keenan Driscoll; and Secretary, Julie Clinton.

STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

Once again the Student Advisory Board was led by the unfailing qualities of Mrs. Petrakos, and the officers this year were Ellen McCusker, President; Jill Gary, Vice-President; Beth O'Toole, Treasurer; and Carolyn MacDonald, Secretary. Joseph Flaherty was the P.R. coordinator, and seniors Ann Brady and Keenan Driscoll were the State Regional Representatives.

As this was the first year a student was given the opportunity to sit on the School Committee as an ex-officio member, the lines of communication were opened each meeting that Ellen attended. This improvement in relations was evident when many interested students attended an October meeting in the hopes of changing the much disputed science project requirement. Although no changes were made in the current program, a path was made for next year's inevitable effort. Last, but not least, of course, is the juice machine accomplishment. It was the result of many student requests and was put in place in the early part of the year. Because of its success, the school received some much needed income for beneficial projects.

PRESIDENTIAL CLASSROOM

A Presidential Classroom
For Young Americans, Inc.

During February vacation in 1987, six students, James Christian, Jeff Collins, Christine Greenhow, Julie Hennigan, Romell Nandi, and Mark Rosenberg, participated in the Presidential Classroom Program in Washington, D.C. Designed to enlighten students from all around the United States about the inner workings of our American Government, this intensive workshop provided these Westwood students daily with two interesting (or not so interesting) and informative speakers, which included an ambassador, congressional members (such as Ms. Patricia Schroeder), a retired Supreme Court Justice, and a lobbyist. When not listening or snoozing during a lecture or engaged in "cross-fire" debates over abortion or (as in Jeff's case) the declining need for farmers with Southern enthusiasts, the over five hundred P.C. students spent a great deal of their time touring such renown Washington palces as the Lincoln Memorial, Jefferson Memorial, Smithsonian Museum, Library of Congress, Supreme Court, Capitol Hill, and (for a lucky few) the White House. The week concluded on a high note with a Farewell Dinner Dance, after which students said good-bye to those they would remember and those they would soon forget, leaving behind the multiple name tags, the hard-to-be-on-time-for meetings, the easily acquired Southern drawl, the Kristin's, the Chauncy's, the Locke's, the Angela's, the Julia's, and the rest of the people from Presidential Classroom, who will live in the memories of Westwood's 1988 graduates for years to come.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY

Student Government Day is held on the second Tuesday of April each year at the State House. On this day elected delegates and alternates from most high schools in the state of Massachusetts become involved in a mock government day. Students assume the roles of state officials and "govern" the state for a day. Anne Brady and Jennifer Rutan were 1988's delegate and alternate.

SAFE RIDES

The year 1988 marked the start of a program, which will hopefully last for many years at Westwood High School. Safe Rides is run by the students, for the students, with members from the classes of 1990, 1989, and 1988. The purpose of the organization is to have members volunteer their time to drive others home safely. As a result of Safe Rides, many students were driven home safely, instead of drinking and driving.

The officers for 1988 are as follows: President, D. Halperin; Vice-President, Alan Brazier and Jen Cummings; Treasurer, Gregg Sudduth; and Secretary, Roger Hughes.

Front Row (L to R): R. Hughes, J. Cummings. Back Row: A. Brazier, D. Halperin, G. Sudduth.

MENTORS

Although an organization under the Westwood Youth Commission, Mentors encompasses many students of WHS. Through Mentors, several volunteer and educational activities have reached out to many people in the town, from the "Teen Nights" at the junior high, to the "Single Parent Nights" at the First Parish, to most importantly, the Sexual Abuse Plays. The plays have been the most difficult and the most rewarding, taking over five months to prepare. Special thanks to Joan Courtney, Doug and Annette, and of course, Rob Stadolnik. THANK YOU, ROB!

Advisor Mr. Rob Stadolnik

KEY CLUB

As an organization with participation coming from all four grades, WHS Key Club has achieved much during the 1987-1988 year. Designed for volunteer services in all areas, the Key Club this year has successfully organized two Red Cross Bloodmobiles, participated in the annual Heart Association phonathons, and has worked on an individual basis with SNARC, Mentors, and various religious teaching programs in Westwood. The officers this year—Jill Gary, Susan Gearty, Julie Hennigan, and Christa Kremer, and their advisor, Mrs. Ann Matteson, are grateful for the strong involvement in the Key Club, and wish to thank all those who were willing to give their time and energy to make Key Club a continued success.

SADD

PEER COUNSELING

The concentration of this year's SADD program is with peer counseling. SADD will again be visible in the spring with anti-drinking and driving campaigns around prom and graduation time. Thank you to Mrs. L. Hanlon, our faculty advisor.

Peer Educators is an organization designed for high school students who want to be involved with youngsters. The members have had extensive training sessions and attended a REACH Seminar. Peer Educators talk about the effects of drugs, alcohol, peer pressure, and high school life to junior high students. They hope to expand to the elementary level in the future. Thank you to our faculty advisors, Ms. C. Hogan and Ms. C. Armstrong.

MATH TEAM

The Math Team once again had another successful year due to our fearless captains, John Coen and Mike Papetti; or was it because of the Smart Food? In any case, our real fearless advisor, Mr. James Pender, pulled us through in the clutch so we could capture 2nd place in the SMCC and take first in medium-sized schools. We also fared well in the GBML, and wish the best of luck to next year's crew - especially Dave Sceppa, who always manages to outdo ARML everyone, either by getting 18 points or going to the State Star Team.

CHESS CLUB

Although it has probably fewer fans than, let's say, the football team, the WHS Chess Team is indeed worthy of some royal recognition. Led by an intense team of Hans Waldman, Chris Babcock, Blake Poreda, John Barucci, and Brad Poreda, under the mastermind of Mr. Kevin Burke, the team finished in the South Shore Chess League with a respectable record of 5-3. Why not 8-0! Well, as they say, "There was some heavy checking on the boards."

Front Row (L to R): P. White, C. Babcock, L. McLean, Mr. K. Burke. Back Row: K. Close, M. White, J. Barucci, H. Waldman, B. Poreda.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

BOYS' STATE

During June of 1987 Bill Cronin, Scott Blomquist, and Steve Lane spent a week at Bentley College with 850 other high school students from the state for Massachusetts Boys' State. The purpose of Boys' State was to learn about American government and politics on the local and state levels through the formation of mock town, city, and state governments. The program included the formation of political parties, as well as primary and general elections. In addition, Boys' State was an opportunity to meet other students from across the state. The week at Boys' State was frenzied and hectic (and sometimes boring), but the overall experience proved rewarding and fulfilling.

GIRLS' STATE

In the spring of our junior year, Diana Butters, Jennifer Cummings, Ellen McCusker, and Seta Yessaillian were chosen to participate in the 1987 session of Girls' State at Elms College in Chicopee, Massachusetts. Participation in this democracy-in-action enabled us to perceive local, state, and national elections with a better understanding because of our new found knowledge of caucuses, conventions, and campaigns. By participating in this mock government, we gained a new insight to our responsibilities as American citizens and learned the true definitions of patriotism and national pride.

We had the unique opportunity of stepping into a world of challenges more rewarding and demanding than we had ever known before, but most of all we learned the potential that is in each of us. P.S. See you at the White House, girls, and don't forget your beanies!

STUDENT ANNOUNCERS

GOOD MORNING! . . . These words greet us sleepy students every morning in homeroom - whether we want them to or not! - by our always chipper announcers. Filling everyone in on what's going on when, where, and why, these vocal but humorous seniors have reached out to every student in the school; and without them, the morning would seem even heavier and more dreary than it already is,

SCHOOL STORE

"In God we trust; all others pay cash!" That statement best describes the 1987-1988 school store. The mission of the store was to make money and that it did. In its second year of existence, the store hopes to double its previous year's profits. In 1987-88 there were big sellers, which included the ever popular Pepsi and Rece combination. These offset the busts of the year, which included the ludicrous locker mirrors and the unfortunately nonexistent kisses. A very special thanks goes to Mrs. Rosengarten, the store's advisor, whose guidance helped it from being "in the red" up to being "in the black." Another thanks goes to the "regulars," both workers and customers.

L to R: J. Gary, J. Dobra, D. Sullivan, S. Gearty, T. Creamer.

Thanks to the Student Advisory Board under President Ellen McCusker, health-conscious students now have the opportunity to buy fruit juice from the Motts juice machine next to the school store. So far, it's been a sweet success!

GREEN YEARS

Yearbook . . . Not one member of the Green Years' staff realized what he or she was getting into - including the faculty advisor. After a somewhat late start in the fall, the staff activities picked up momentum, particularly soon after we met our publisher's representative. The staff learned fast - what it was that needed to be done - scheduling of picture taking of the seniors, of the homerooms, of the club activities and special events, of the faculty and staff, of the year-long sports, of scenes around the school - and the list goes on! Most important of all, the staff soon was working as a team, attending meetings, brainstorming, enlisting other seniors for assistance in layout, selling ads (we need the money!), and spreading the word: "Order your yearbook now!"

Putting this yearbook together has involved a tremendous amount of time (right through July), work and planning. However, it's been a great experience and the end result, the staff hopes, will be an outstanding publication, one that captures and records the memorable and happy events of WHS in 1987-1988. In the future, as you look back through these pages, we hope you will fondly recall and relive the Green Years of your life.

DRAMA CLUB

Lights! Camera! Action! The Drama Club really knows how to set the stage for fun, excitement, and hard work. The great Gene Kelly once said of performing: "Once it gets under your skin, it's in your blood, and you can never get it out!" After having put together skits such as "The Last Time I Saw Paris" and "Hero Here at Heorot" for After Dinner Theatre presentations during first semester, these students agree with Gene Kelly. For second semester the students explored a new realm of acting called Theatre in The Round with the spring musical "Command Performance," written by the Drama Club's advisor, Mrs. S. Shute Kelsch. Overall, it's been quite an entertaining and profitable year.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

Joyce (right) and Friends: Joyce Schellekens of The Netherlands spent her senior year here. We hope she enjoyed her stay as much as we enjoyed having her!

Gregor Ritter and Marcus Braemm of Hardtburg Gymnasium, Bonn, West Germany, spent the first semester here at Westwood. They had first visited WHS as part of the German Cultural Exchange Program in the spring of '87. They liked WHS, its students, teachers, and town so much they decided they wanted to spend a semester here as regular students. They left Westwood in December with some great memories of their experiences.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society is a select organization composed of juniors and seniors who meet various standards of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Miss H. Joan Dillon serves as the advisor and Jeff Collins, James Christian, Chris Greenhow, and Christa Kremer are the officers. The organization participates in a variety of service-oriented activities, including student tutoring and numerous programs through the Recreation Department.

The NHS induction was once again an impressive event in which both worthy juniors and seniors were acknowledged by parents, faculty, and peers. This year's junior speakers were Lynn Duffy, Todd Anderson, Mythrei Sharma, and Mark Rutstein. A special award was also presented to Mrs. Dorothy Saltmarsh for her outstanding dedication to the teaching profession. The prized Princeton Award went this year to Edward Nyguyen, a student who has proven his academic excellence and is well deserving of this honor.

SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY

Spanish National Honor Society is an organization made up of students who excel in and have an avid interest in the Spanish language. Under the leadership of Kara Cunningham, Jen Tschirch, and Kathy Perry, SHH had another very successful year. With the help of Mrs. Perry, our faculty advisor, we sold ice-cream, and "Good Luck Pops" during mid-terms and finals. We also participated in the German Exchange Program and a holiday dinner with the French National Honor Society. We hope SHH will have continued success in the years to come.

FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY

Although only established two years ago, the Societe Honoraire de Francais has had several activities in the 1987-1988 year. Because the club is very selective, the small number of members have become very friendly and have dined on French cuisine together at Le Bourgenon. The club this year sold balloons at a Westwood football game and shared a dinner with the Spanish Honor Society as some of its activities. Special thanks to Miss Ann-Marie Tieri for her advice and time for making the year successful, and we appreciate her patience when scheduling meetings and activities into our busy schedules.

MUSIC PROGRAM

Westwood High School Christmas Concert

The first concert of the school year has always been an exciting event for both the students participating and the audience attending, especially during the Christmas season. The long hours of rehearsal for the groups and the development of skills and attitudes culminate in this festive musical performance. From the joyful harmonies of the Glee Club, Double Quartet and Chorale, under the direction of Mrs. M. Gray, to violin melodies of the orchestra and the spirited tunes of the Brass Ensemble, under the direction of Mr. J. Guirleo, to the jazzy rhythms of the Dance Band and Percussion Ensemble, under the direction of Mr. D. Richard and Mr. S. Cerilli respectively, an enjoyable musical experience was had by all.

Turkey-Day Game

Despite the up's and down's of 1987's football squad, the team still had a chance to go to the Division 4 Super Bowl. It all came down to the traditional Thanksgiving Day game versus Holliston, at Holliston, in a steady freezing rain. The team fought hard and nearly pulled off a last-second victory, but students, parents, alumni, and players had to leave satisfied with second place.

This year Nub changed our traditional short-long-short's so that we couldn't hide behind the big tree at the Jr. High. Double sessions were long and tiring, but we got a break when a major gas line exploded about twenty-five yards from where we were playing!

In order to get the freshmen psyched for their first game, we helped them choose their attire. Little did we know that Dr. Gearon would have a discussion with tri-captains Di, Jen, and Lorie about hazing. We continued the tradition of Hey Laddy's in the back of the bus with Squeeze blaring in the background on the ride home from our first game. We invaded Papa Gino's every ziti-night and soon had the town of Norwood hating us; they dreaded our arrival. But Shrimp and Moe's impersonations caused the most commotion. We also gave Nub ulcers and the phrase "Girls, you've GOT to get the ball in the net!" was ringing in our ears-we had the most ties in the league. Our winning season ended when we were eliminated from the tournament by TVL champ Marian. We'd like to thank Nub and know that he will wear his new hat.

"Laydee! . . . Ifff! . . . Toilet papering . . . Mishter Dee . . . Nubbles Bubbles . . . Can we go watch the boys' game? . . . Papa G's to-night? . . . Lobby."

The Boys' Soccer Team was picked to finish third in the TVL. Tourney hopes were very high in the pre-season due to the eleven returning starters from the previous year. However, these hopes were squashed due to injuries to key players.

Gregg Sudduth, Matt Scarano, Jon Fox, Jeff Friedman, James Christian, Mark Carey, and Tom Feeney all missed important games. These injuries handicapped a team that otherwise would have survived late into the state tournament.

Coach Rook was the head coach for our four years at Westwood. Without his devout optimism and faith in us, we could never had achieved all the success we did. Matt Scarano will always be remembered for his laid-back personality and quiet confidence in key situations.

Volleyball

"Gooney!" "You, over there, shag those balls!" "Win Westwood!" "Jenny, where are your knee pads today?" "We did our exercises. Really we did!"

We knew our summer was over when the double sessions began in late August. We were all "bummin'" to see the hot days in the sun end. Practices with our new coach, Cathy Smith, were long but fun as we danced around the courts to Hooter's music making fools of ourselves. Waiting in spiking lines, we compared our bruises but it was always Ann who won that contest. On the bus rides home we missed Mr. West with those bags of Doritos and Chips, but thanks to Mrs. Cooney and Mrs. Murphy we got by with chocolate and lollipops.

Led by Co-Captains Ann Brady and Christa Kremer we had no problems getting through a great season which ended with our title as Central State Sectional Champs!

In the 1987 Cross Country season, Westwood's runners had to settle for fourth place, behind Holliston, Bellingham, and Dover-Sherborn. The team fought hard and posted a great number of personal bests on the various courses around the league, including the insane Bellingham course, which possesses a hill that looks more like a vertical wall! As for the team itself, all four grades contributed to the excitement and adventure in the Tri-Valley League. Freshmen runners were led by Dan Ringel. As for the sophomore crew, Erik Dreyer snagged several top ten spots in the dual meets. Junior Dana Dratch made a great improvement from last year. The amazing Kevin Carter returned again to pull off some first place victories. Westwood's seniors knew that this was their last C.C. season at WHS and gave it everything they had. Captained by Steve Maxwell and Mark Rosenberg, Al Wallace, Paul Ward, Mike Papetti, Al Brazier, Al Riskalla, and Dan Leary attacked the courses with all their might. But we can't forget The Peasants, The Sex Pistols, The Clash, and The Jam which psyched us up before each meet. We also made our three traditional journeys to Franklin Park for the Catholic Memorial, Coaches' Invitational, and state meets. We would like to thank Coach Richard Hargreaves for his devotion to the team-on the bus, on the track, at the meets, and yes, even on the roads.

The Westwood girls' varsity field hockey team ended its season with one win, three ties, and eleven losses. Thanks to new coach Gina (Muddah) Villa, they stuck together and improved their team spirit. The team looks forward to next year with hopes resting on the younger members of the team.

Girls' Swim Team

Despite a losing record the 1987 Girls' Swim Team had a very exciting season. Under the instruction of new coach Jami Cloney Derbyshire, the Wolverine swimmers improved their times and won many individual races. Melissa Fannon represented WHS in the South Sectionals for diving. Her performance was awesome. Captains Helen Flanagan, Monica Cloney, and Kara Cunningham remember a season of "Sue's wandering eyes," "Mel's dives," and "Jami's constant lecturing." The team wishes next year's swimmers, with Sue Kelley and Hania Khuri as co-captains, a successful and fun-filled season.

The swim team had a perfect season this year under the new leadership of Coach Jamie Derbyshire. There were outstanding individual performances turned in by all. Captain Brendan McCarthy and several others made it to Sectionals. Several new freshmen hopefully will lead to better team performances in the future.

Winter Track

The 1987-88 boys' team under Coach Jerry Loughlin posted a record of 3-3. Throughout the season, the guys ran and jumped through morning and afternoon practices to bring out their best. A great deal of improvement was seen in every member, and Captains Keenan Driscoll, Steve Lane, and Mark Rosenberg kept morale high. Steve Maxwell contributed points in the hurdles and mile; Paul Ward, the high jump; Chris Esposito, the shot put (and on occasion the quarter-mile jaunt); and Gregg Sudduth, the high jump, the hurdles, and plenty of amusement.

The Class "D" State Meet saw Driscoll placing in the 600 meters, Sudduth soaring in the high jump, Lane dashing the 300 meters, and Rosenberg burning out in the 3200 meters.

The girls' indoor track team had a tough season, not winning any of their meets. However, newcomer Mary MacDonald did a great job coaching-all 8 of us. Personal bests were achieved by everyone. The seniors, Nancy Bride, Julie White, and Diana Butters would like to thank the team for their hard work and dedication. Not many people would rise to run at 6:30 a.m., and we wish the team good luck next year.

The Wolverine hockey team had another very successful season as they captured their 5th straight TVL title and became the first Westwood team to pass an undefeated and untied league record. The team was led by tri-captains Scott Blomquist, Mark Carey, and Brian Spellman. Many of the Woverines were named to the league all-star team, as well as a number of new team and individual records. First team all-stars were defensemen Mark Carey and Chris Ruggiero, and forward Scott Blomquist; second team all-stars were Brian Welby, Bill Cronin, Tom Feeney and Brian Spellman. The season was highlighted by Brian Welby receiving the league MVP, and Scott Blomquist leading the league in scoring followed by Bill Cronin. The exciting first line of Bill Cronin, Scott Blomquist, and Brian Spellman shattered the scoring record for a line with 156 points, as Scott Blomquist broke the single season scoring record with 66 points, and Bill Cronin set a new single season assist record with 37.

The team again qualified for the state tournament posting a final record of 18-4-1, with lack of the four losses coming by only one goal. The season came to a close in the tournament as the Wolverines dropped a heartbreaking 5-4 contest to eventual state champion Northeast Regional. Strong contributors to their successful final season were seniors Scott Blomquist, Mark Carey, Bill Cronin, Tom Feeney, Mike Foxx, Calvin Kennedy, Nick Milonas, Mike Russo, and Brian Spellman.

Ski Team

The ski team had a tough season this year, not winning any meets. But this didn't stop us from having fun. Coach Rock reminded some of us of soccer season; we played soccer drills and did extensive running to get into shape. Captains Brett Henderson and Roger Hughes led the team through "those awful practices" and made us laugh when we needed to. Next year the ski team will be stronger and more experienced because only 2 seniors (1 on the club and 1 on the team) are leaving. The seniors want to thank Coach Rock and wish the team good luck in the future. "Swass! . . . DNF . . . DSQ . . . Where's the breakaways? . . . no practice because of snow . . . stingers tumble."

"Balls!" was the opening yell for the dream team of 1988, the cinderella story team that took a 4-6 record halfway through the season and turned it into a tournament qualifying record of 12-8. With excellent pitching, a defense as solid as a wall, and unstoppable offense, the team advanced and conquered every team to capture the Southeastern Division Title (Sandwich - Middleboro - Archbishop Williams - Walpole). This was a first since 1963. It had been 25 years since a Westwood baseball team had won this title! But all good things must come to an end, and without the leadership of their fearless leader, Coach Downes, the Wolverines ran into some trouble and lost in the state semi-finals to Hamilton-Wenham, winner of the state title.

At the conclusion of the season, Gregg Sudduth, Brian Grady, Mike Totino, and Scott Cappucino were named Tri-Valley League All-Stars. It was an excellent season and everyone had a blast. The team wants to extend its thanks to Coach Downes, Coach Hendy, and Coach Haley. The seniors wish lots of luck to Bomber, Pinwheel, S. Master, and the rest of the crew. Don't forget the chant that got us there: "BALLS!"

Softball

Our record did not show how talented we really were! We will remember the good times and how fun the season was . . . "POWDER IT!" says Big Ed. "It's Gwen time!"

The Boys' Track Team had a good season, ending up with a record of 3-4. Led by Captains Steve Lane, Keenan Driscoll, and Mark Rosenberg, the team pulled out an amazing one-point win over Bellingham. At the end of their season, several runners were named Tri-Valley League All-Stars and Honorable Mentions: Keenan Driscoll, All-Star in the intermediate hurdles; Tom Bean, Honorable Mention in the long jump; and Steve Lane, Honorable Mention in both the 100 meters and the 200 meters. The seniors would like to thank Coach Hargreaves and Assistant Coach Kerrigan for all their time and effort and wish the team good luck next season. "... Sit on ... face ... getting Goofy ... The Girls' Spring Track Team had a tough season, not winning many of their meets. Captains Julie White and Debbie Malouf led the team through all those tough, long afternoon runs. Many personal bests were recorded during the meets; and at the conclusion of the season, Debbie Malouf was named to the Tri-Valley All-Star team. Other standouts included Julie White, Andrea Dorr, Stephanie Schonmetzler, and Stephanie Murray. The seniors would like to thank Coach Mary MacDonald for all her hard work and effort and wish the team good luck next year season.

Tennis

The Boys' Tennis Team had a great season, ending up with a record of 11-3. Captains Al Brazier and Marc Davis led us to the tournament. We fought hard, but lost the first round battle to Gloucester. At the end of our season, Al Brazier and Marc Davis were named TVL All-Stars in the Singles Category; Jeff Friedman and Marc VanZadelhoff were named to the Doubles Category. Greg Dixon was named a TVL honorable mention holding a record of 13-1. The seniors would like to thank Coach Greene for all his time and effort and wish the team good luck next season. "... The Girls' Tennis Team had a good season, finishing third in the TVL. Led by Captains Jen Robicheau and Kate Kane, the team advanced to the second round of the state tournament. At the conclusion of the season, Jen Robicheau, Jen McCoy, and Liz Murphy were named Tri-Valley All-Stars in the Singles Category. The seniors would like to thank Coach O'Wafon for all her time and effort and wish the team good luck next season.

The golf team had an exceptional season. They were the champions of the Tri-Valley League! Led by Captain Bill Cronin, the team advanced to the tournament and just missed the State Finals round. At the end of the season, Lindsay Fink was named MVP of the Tri-Valley League. Lindsay Fink and Ted McMellen were named to the TVL All-Star team and Bill Cronin and Jamie McDonough received Honorable Mention. Thanks to Coach Kodzis for his guidance and support! This year's cheerleaders did a fantastic job of rooting on our football and boys' hoop teams. Their enthusiasm and devotion led the Class of '88 and all WHS students at pep rallies and at games. Unfortunately, all of their hard work did not quite pay off as our teams fell somewhat short.

Special Events

Lip Sync

The Westwood High School Lip Sync allowed the student body to display its musical talent (or lack thereof) in front of its peers. The participants were judged on factors such as appearance, movements, and lip syncking ability. The various groups had the audience laughing and clapping (or, in some cases, snoring). In any case, even the groups without the remotest clue to what they were doing seemed to be having fun (which is more than can be said for the audience watching these particular performances). The Senior Class laughed all the way to the bank.

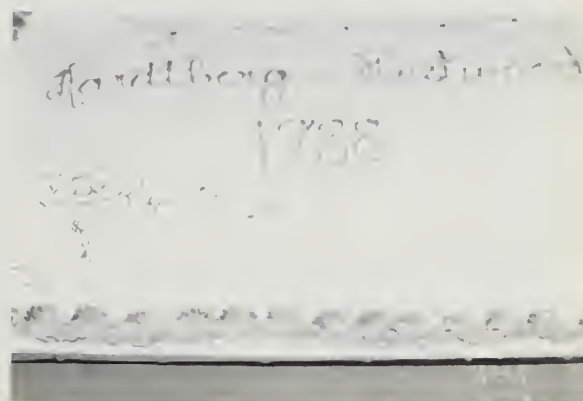

German Exchange

This year 21 students from Hardtburg Gymnasium, Bonn, West Germany, participated in a three week study and cultural exchange program at Westwood High School during their spring break. The group was led by Frau Vera Ritter, a teacher of English and Chemistry at the Hardtburg Gymnasium in Meckenheim, Bonn. The trip marked the first trip to the U.S. for most of the students, who seemed to enjoy their stay very much. Hopefully, the next group will find their experience just as entertaining.

Senior Volleyball Tournament

Filled with controversial calls, spectacular volleys, and heart-breaking miscues, the senior volleyball tournament was truly a sight to behold. What was meant to be a friendly, laid-back tournament turned out to be an intense, invigorating affair. Hitting a plain white ball over a net probably never caused such violent reactions before. At any rate, playing volleyball was surely a better idea than a bingo tournament. Hopefully, the tournament will be a continuing tradition.

Car Wash

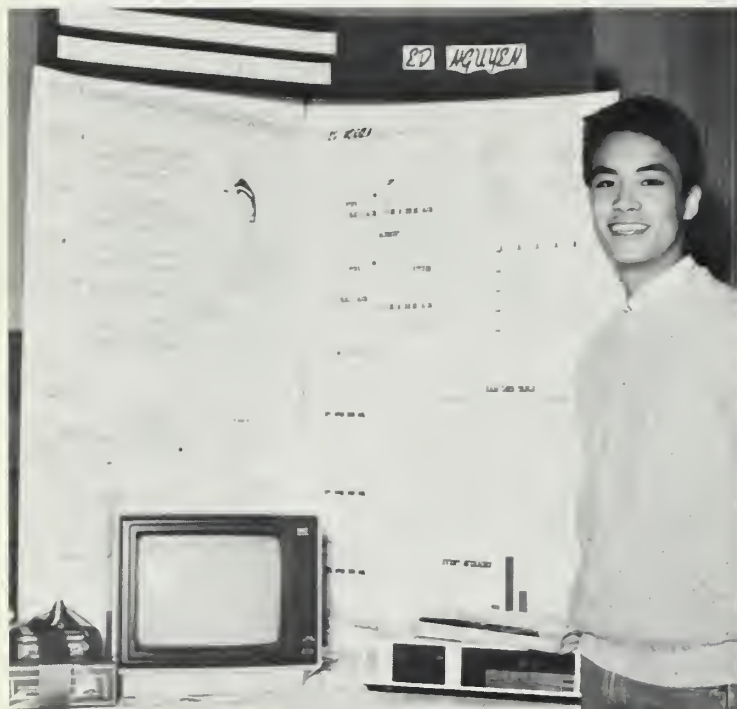

Soap, suds, and bubbles characterized this year's senior class car washes, not only on cars and vans, but also on the hair, face, and clothes of the workers. Scrubbing sponges left paint and chrome shiny clean, and happy customers made our first efforts a huge success. Class and car support dwindled somewhat as fading foam and colder weather dampened spirits. The car washes concluded in November, leaving memories of sunny soap fights, gleaming cars, and crinkled money - all washed up!

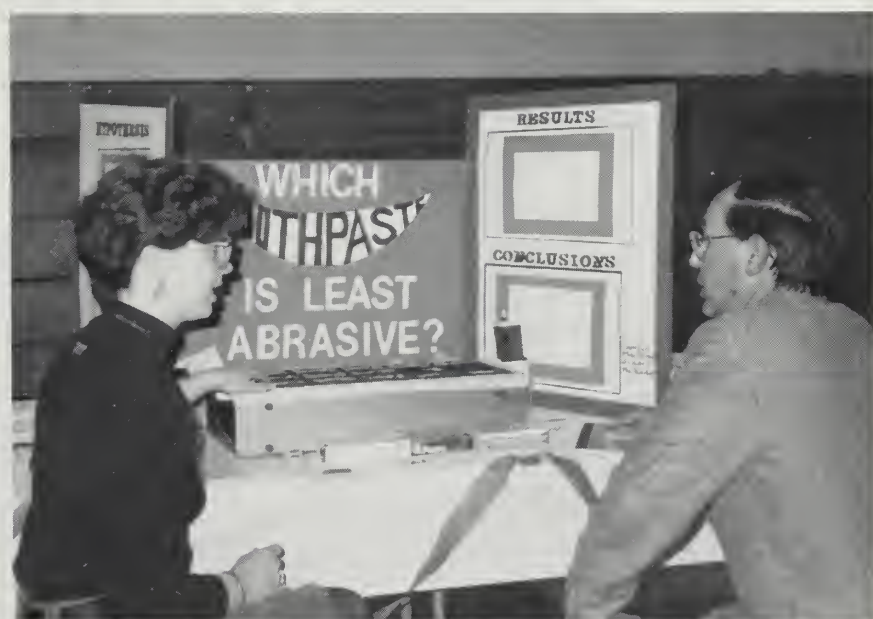

Science Fair

The 1988 Westwood High School Science Fair was held on March 16. Seventy-eight students presented their projects to thirty-five distinguished judges from the community.

First prize was awarded to junior Ed Nguyen for his work on "Respirable Particulate Levels Created by Coal/Wood Stoves." Second prize was given to sophomore John Lee for his project entitled, "Age, Sex and the Psychology of Sound." Junior Mythreyi Sharma received third place for her "Study of the Biological Clock." Other top winners in order were: Karen Hu (9), Brad Poreda (12), Jay Guirleo (11), Chris Bacbcock (9), Daiva Gostautas (9), Matt Greenway (9), Dan Ringel (9), Craig Foster (9), and Amy Zouranjian (10). All of the award winners represented WHS at the Regional Science Fair in Bridgewater. Awards were given to John Lee and Ed Nguyen, who went on to represent WHS at the State Science Fair at MIT.

Command Performance

One evening this spring the Westwood High School music room was transformed into the Ginger Jingles School of Musical Comedy. The Chorale and Drama Club presented Command Performance, a variety show consisting of comical skits and show tunes. Mrs. S. Kelsch wrote and directed the show and Mrs. M. Gray and Mr. J. Guirleo conducted the music. The cast played students in the Ginger Jingles School. The various acts were designed to entertain Miss Julia Worth-Worthington Ford who threatened to close the school. The cast worked extremely hard and their efforts paid off. They saved the school, thoroughly entertained the audience, and had a lot of fun.

Partying teens trash Westwood homes

By Lisa Richardson
The Patriot Ledger

WESTWOOD — Several elegant homes in this wealthy suburb were damaged recently during out-of-control parties involving upwards of 150 teenagers, according to police.

The parties — held on weekends while parents were away — caused thousands of dollars damage and led to the arrest of several youths.

Three police officers called to break up one party were injured, including one who was bitten by a high school student.

The problem has been growing for months. Students say in the last year they have seen party-goers toss a stereo through a window, cook a telephone in a microwave oven and attempt to light a dog on fire.

"There have been several teenage house parties this fall necessitating police intervention, including assistance from Norwood Police and State Police, in making a large number of arrests of Westwood teenagers," police Chief Francis Abbate said.

Abbate said that during the past 10 months police have brokered

WESTWOOD — High school students say it is about time they told their side of the story concerning teen-age house parties.

Student Advisory Board members and other high school teens say recent publicity on the parties has highlighted the raucous antics of a few youths while largely ignoring the efforts of many more teens to provide creative solutions to their peers' problems.

To combat the public perception concerning Westwood teens, the Student Advisory Board submitted an editorial to the Daily Transcript outlining some of the positive steps that have been taken to deal with the problem.

In the column, the advisory board complains that the parties are attracting too much attention. Other activities, including a counseling program staffed by high school age teens and the Youth Commission, teen chaperones for junior high school dances and projects focusing on sexual abuse and teen-age drink-

I am sure that most of you have read at least one article recently depicting the "uncontrollable partying teens" of Westwood. It is extremely unsettling to the students at Westwood High School to learn that they are disgraceful delinquents who destroy houses for kicks. The accusations are grossly exaggerated.

This editorial is not, however, a denial of the events of the past. It is instead, a clarification. The members of the Westwood High School Student Advisory Board would ask you to realize that the people who are causing these problems do not, by any stretch of the imagination, represent the majority of the students at Westwood High School. In fact, some of the troublemakers are former graduates or have never even attended the school.

Students resent party-hardy tag

By Kimberly Marie Gill

WESTWOOD — For the past few months students at Westwood High School have been receiving a lot of bad press for a problem that has plagued high schools all over the country for some time now. The attention focused on Westwood could just as well have been focused on Dedham, Needham or Walpole. Any school or community which claims that it doesn't have a teenage drinking problem should ask its teenagers.

For the most part, students at WHS don't deny that there's a problem. What they do resent, however, is the assumption everyone in Westwood drinks. Not everyone in Westwood does. Just as in Dedham, Norwood or Sharon, there are those who do and those who don't and in most cases those who don't outnumber those who do. The events recounted in the papers did not all happen at the same party and most of them were exaggerated.

Carolyn MacDonald, also a junior, said she feels that the problem is only concerned with a small minority of students and the majority is being blamed for what these students do. The whole student body is receiving a bad name for the acts of a few.

In a small public speaking class discussion (where all nine students present requested having their names withheld) many admitted they were at the party where the "burning dog" and the "microwaved telephone" incidents took place. These incidents, according to the students, were exaggerated to an extreme point by the press. The "burning dog" incident was actually just a couple of kids who were lighting a

WESTWOOD, Mass., Dec. 24 — Unsupervised teen-age parties here have become so raucous that the police chief wants to stop them by filing criminal charges, against the parents.

In the last year the police in Westwood, a quiet, affluent suburb 10 miles southwest of Boston that generally closes for the night about 9 P.M., have had to break up 20 wild parties organized by teen-agers whose parents were absent.

At one party this fall, teen-agers tried to melt a telephone in a microwave oven and ate the family's tropical fish. At another, the youths tried to set fire to a golden retriever. Once, three police officers who were trying to restore order were injured and hospitalized, including one bitten by a partygoer.

As a last resort, the police chief, Francis Abbate, has filed criminal charges against the mother of a 19-year-old youth whose loud party on Nov. 27 was halted by the police. On Jan. 12 in county court, the mother,

Friday night teen center planned

WESTWOOD — Concerned about problems with teenage parties, the recreation department is working to establish a Friday night teen center.

Recreation Director Douglas MacDougall said the center will offer basketball, volleyball, ping pong and music videos at Thurston Junior High School. It will run on a trial basis for two Friday nights, Nov. 20 and Dec. 18. The hours will be 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

one may be offered at the high school, MacDougall said.

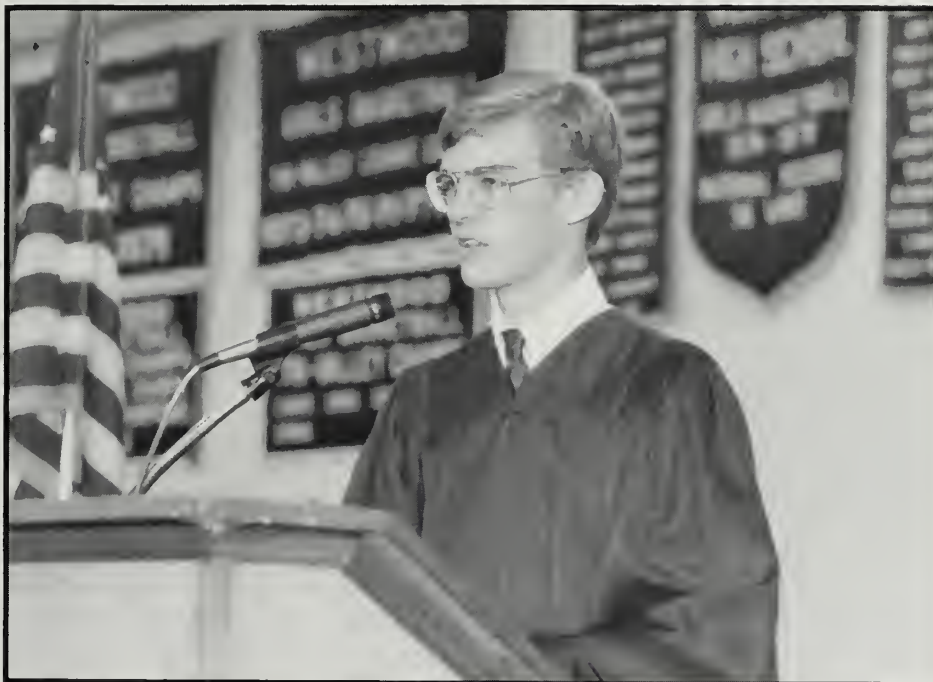

The department is working with the League of Women Voters and the youth commission to develop other activities for teenagers.

The League of Women Voters will ask area churches, women's clubs and civic groups for help in planning and financing teen activities.

The league is asking residents and town organizations to attend an open

History - Class Of '88

FRESHMAN YEAR

When we entered Westwood High School for the first time in September, 1984, nobody knew what to expect. We walked into new classrooms with names such as "Stack," "Kodzis," and "Petrakos," scrawled on the blackboards. Scott Blomquist was our president; Jen Cummings, our vice-president; Nancy Bride, our treasurer; and Michelle Bolser, our secretary. Many found the transition from the junior high school difficult, but soon we roamed the halls as if we owned them. As the sports season came, many of us, as we became members of the different teams, experienced the hazing. But we had comfort in the fact that we would be able to dish out the same in the future. The football team won the Super Bowl, and Brian Quinn, Mark Thurmond, and Quentin Scott were on the sidelines during the game. The girls' basketball team and hockey team also won state titles, but no freshmen were able to play for the two deep and talented teams. The WHS Marching Band, which had a good representation from our class, captured the title of New England Champions in Division One.

All in all, the Class of 1988's freshman year was very productive and by June, we all looked forward to our sophomore year.

Douglas Grady

SOPHOMORE YEAR

I'm sure we all remember it well. Yes, we were the ones you saw walking down Oak St. in search of something to do. Without licenses, transportation was tough. When we did manage to get to an upperclassmen party, we were obviously the losers standing in the corner with no one to talk to but each other and nothing to drink but a Coke. The one exception, however, was the infamous Happy Party, where we found ways to interact with those out-of-reach upperclassmen.

We came into our second year of high school a little sad - Ann and Tara had been sentenced to a year at Montrose - but we found some consolation when Tim returned from Xaverian. Our class officers for the year were Jill Gary, Scott Blomquist, Ellen McCusker and Angela Malvone. Our first big event was Homecoming Week with Hat Day, Pajama Day, 50's Day, and, of course, the ever popular and, oh so easy to do, Green Pride Day. Although some of our boys were a little reluctant to participate, we really didn't do too bad - or at least better than the freshmen. On Saturday, Tammy Imbornone beautifully represented us at the Homecoming Game.

Although the year in sports was somewhat of a letdown, our varsity teams did well and we even had a few representatives talented enough to join the Varsity squads - Gregg, Di, Jenny T., Joan, and Michelle for soccer; Maria for field hockey; and Jill and Suzanne for softball. Mark and Scott skated along with the upperclassmen while Quentin and Mark Thurmond shone on the football field.

Academics were the usual sophomore requirements of Oral English and Health, but due to Miss Shute's extended absence, some of us managed to make it through the semester without the familiar feeling of nausea before each speech. With the new privilege of free blocks, we were rarely seen in the library; instead, the soph chicks were seen in the caf adjusting their seats in order to get better views of the senior boys!

With spring came the cast of "Good Morning America" and wishful thoughts for the prom. Our image was changed from the "drug addicts," as reflected in an earlier WHS survey, to the Perfect American teenagers as shown on nationwide television in our prom finery. Unfortunately, the prom cast consisted mainly of juniors and seniors, and once again the sophomores were left in the dust. Our beach trip was not very successful as half the students were forced off the bus due to lack of room. Since we were merely sophomores, without licenses, we could only dream of the upperclassman status that was only a few months away . . .

Ellen McCusker

Our "underclassmen" years were finally over. It was now our junior year. We were officially "upperclassmen," with more prestige and more responsibilities. Leading the class were President Jill Gary, Vice President Gregg Sudduth, Treasurer Scott Blomquist, and Secretary Chris Greenhow. Junior year was the "most important year," "the year that counted the most for colleges." We had many tests to take-PSATS, SATS, and Achievements. Our favorite class was US History where Mr. Brown and Miss Congdon taught in a very calm and gentle manner.

As juniors we gave strength to varsity teams. Dedicated fans traveled all the way to Xaverian field to cheer the football team all the way to the Superbowl. Despite the team's hard work and spirited hair-cuts, they lost to Archbishop Williams. Girls' volleyball became league champs, Central and Eastern champs, and made it to the finals. The young boys' soccer team had a shaky start but a strong finish. The girls' soccer team lost a chance for tourney by only one game. Cross country, track, and the Clams from the girls' and boys' swim teams displayed fine talent and personal bests. While John Coen and Mr. Topalian started the Sailing Club, the big question was "Would it sail into the future or sink?" The boys' hoop, the softball, and the baseball teams put forth great efforts. The hockey team won its 4th straight TVL title and its 3rd straight South Sectional Championship. Mr. Kodzis' golfers became TVL champs. Boys' tennis stole the TVL Championship from DS while the girls also won the league and went to the semi's. Girls' hoop maintained the 13 year TVL streak.

We were winners not only at sports but also at music. The marching band led by Drum Major Cathy Perry, placed third in New England. Instead of a full-scale musical, the music department and drama club presented the "Roaring 20's Variety Show."

In September, many of us started driving to school instead of taking the little yellow bus. Homecoming Week came in October and our class stopped losing for lack of participation. We participated in Hat Day, Pajama, Punk-50's Day, and Green Pride Day. Tammy Imbornone was selected as our Homecoming representative. We dressed up for the annual Halloween Dance. A group of pirates from our class walked off with winning the best costume contest. The school store was introduced in the fall as a Senior Class fund-raiser and was passed to Dave Sullivan & Co. for our use. The first Lip Sync occurred in November and was so successful that another one was held in the spring. The Monster Mash and The Lion Sleeps Tonight received applause and cash prizes. Thanks to Jill and Ellen, we no longer had to take swimming.

As the winter months dragged on, we attended the Mr. WHS contest and cheered Hendy to victory. February vacation came and went. Several juniors travelled to merry old England and had a merry old time. Some maybe too merry. In April, we waved bon voyage to seniors Bermuda bound and started to make plans for our next year's vacation. As May rolled around so did Prom Fever. Despite the tiny dance floor, a great time was had by all. Everyone headed for further festivities down the cape the next day. Amy Sullivan, Christine Meleo, Kim Gill, and Erin Lynch were our representatives in the court. Class Day arrived and we suddenly realized how close the end was coming. Summer was in the air. Surprisingly, a grand total of 9 kids went on the Junior Class beach trip. As we watched the seniors graduate we looked forward to our turn. Senior year would be a time for planning our futures, looking back on the past, and enjoying the present.

SENIOR YEAR

As all years had started out, senior year began with grueling double sessions. We were leading the sprints and yelling at the freshmen to keep up. The explosion of a gas line behind the school cancelled one session, but did not delay the opening of school. Although freshman harassment was officially outlawed, each sports team found a way to give the freshmen a taste of tradition. Our class was led by President Jill Gary, Vice President Mark Rosenberg, Treasurer Scott Blomquist, and Secretary Chris Greenhow. Homecoming Week included Hat Day, Clash Day, Color Code/Pajama Day, and Green Pride Day. As seniors, our class won each category. Maria Petrucci and Jenny McCoy were chosen for the court, while Tammy Imbornone was crowned Homecoming Queen. The Powder Puff game was a tough struggle and if it wasn't for the cheating by the boys, the girls would have won. The Halloween Dance attracted an amazing turnout, thanks to Dan Leary's "Dangerous Papers." On Thanksgiving Day the Wolverine football team led by Mark Thurmond, Joe Bean, Jeff Roberts, and Scott McIntyre lost their Superbowl bid to Holliston in a very close game. Captains Ann Brady and Christa Kremer led the volleyball squad to the tournament. Also, the girls' soccer team, Captains Diana Butters, Lorie Noumi, and Jen Tschirch, made it to tourney, but lost a rough one to Marian.

The Westwood High School did not just receive the typical sports coverage by local papers this year. No, this year our school received national attention. People in Alaska, California, Florida, and even Moscow, heard of the town with delirious teenagers. In the lip sync contest, Michelle Niles, Jenny Barber, Erin Lynch, and Lisa Gugliemi showed their version of a typical WHS Party. Meanwhile, Lorie Noumi and Nancy Antonellis assisted Beth O'toole and Sara Seward's battle of the sexes in "Paradise By The Dashboard Lights."

The word "college applications" was the secret word in the fall. When Christmas vacation came, supposedly the week to finish all those unwritten essays, the word "procrastination" became more common. The traditional "senior slump" set in by mid-January, just in time for the ever so important midterms. The month wound down with the Winter Cotillion, where students gave up a fun-filled evening of reading 40 copies of "No Parentheses" to be victimized to an evening of music and dancing.

In winter sports our class displayed their talents and were rather successful. The boys' hockey team, with Captains Mark Carey, Brian Spellmen, and Scott Blomquist, captured the TVL title, and made it to semifinal play. Likewise, the girls' hoop team, led by Jill Gary and Lorie Noumi, were TVL champs and made it all the way to the semi-finals where they lost to rival Foxboro. We were blessed with several snow days, when seniors hit the slopes of the golf course for sledding. With much time and effort, the class successfully completed their science project requirements before February vacation. Our carefully drawn posters and overflowing notebooks provided our science teachers with something to fill their trash can. For February vacation, Miss Bishop took a group of skiers to the Italian Alps. Most seniors stayed home and waited for spring break.

In March, we were disappointed when the dance featuring an encore performance of "Dangerous Papers" was cancelled. However, the Spaghetti Supper was revived. Unfortunately, attendance was sparse due to the hockey tournament. The Senior Class Volleyball tournament was a lot of fun, but extremely emotional, especially for the poor refs. As April rolled by anxieties grew while students waited for D-Day April 15. The WHS presented the variety show "Command Performance" with the talents of Kara Jenkins, Bill Carrabis, Nancy Bride, and Chris Reardon. Diverting our attention away from thin and thick envelopes was the prospect of Spring Break '88. Most of the class travelled to the Bahamas where they sunned, clubbed, scuba dived, and limboed. Across the ocean, Mr. Milan and his Art History class toured Italy. The group will never forget San Marco Square or their favorite restaurant in Florence. The class returned to school with tans and tales.

April concluded with the Rock For Hunger with the groups 5-0, GTO, The Peasants, and The Lincoln Logs. All who attended saw what real "slam dancing" was. The Prom was held at the Sheraton. Instead of the usual limo-ride, several students preferred the luxury of Winnebagos. Post-prom festivities continued the next day down the Cape. Julie Clinton, Sue Gearty, Chandra Williams, and Jen Brown represented the court and Karin Liljestrang was the lovely prom queen. The Senior Class Banquet had the theme "The Best is Yet to Come," and we enjoyed the evening of memories, superlatives, and Amy Sullivan's powerful voice as she accompanied the WHS Dance Band.

Our finals were finally over and we set out to Crane Beach for a rare "sunny" beach trip. Todd Creamer won MVP for volleyball and Brent Rosenblad for wiffleball. Now the final stages of our senior year are here. Our class strove past the bad raps and made the senior year of the Class of '88 a year of memories.

Senior Breakfast

Breakfast was delicious . . . ham, eggs, pancakes, you name it . . . served in our beautifully decorated (green and white) cafeteria. But - who won the game? Girls? Boys? Tie?

Powder Puff

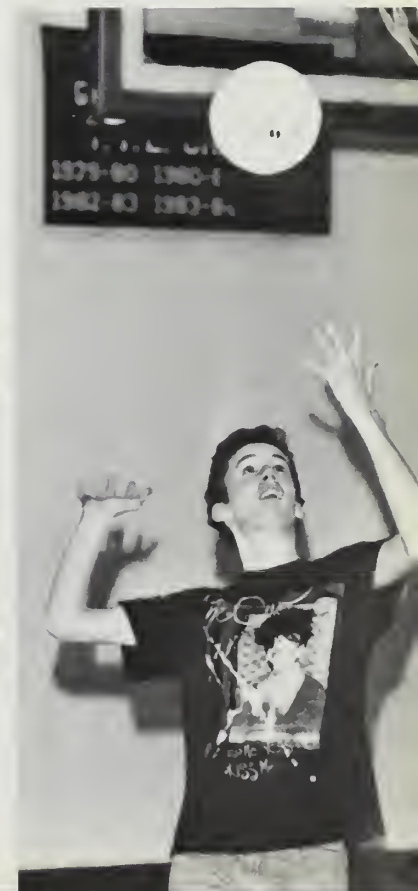

Spaghetti Dinner

Although the annual yearbook sponsored spaghetti dinner fell on the same night as the state tournament hockey game, there was a fairly good turnout. Thanks to the appetites of many hungry parents, students, and faculty, the Green Years staff raised money to support the year book. The editors would like to thank the class officers for helping to dish out food and clean up afterward.

Student/Faculty Volleyball

After dinner, students took on faculty members in a heated volleyball match. Everyone had a great time!

Crane's Clambake

Armed with towels, radios, and volleyballs, the senior class stormed Crane's Beach to the bewilderment of the few people lying peacefully on the sand. Anxious to escape the drudgery of yet another graduation practice, the seniors spent their time playing softball, building a monstrous sand castle, or just tanning in the sun. Myrtle, Pete, Stan, George, Phil, Bertha, and Juan Valdez had an especially great time playing volleyball (sort of). Everyone enjoyed chowing down on clams, chowder, chicken, and corn. Overall, the trip was a huge success. The Class of '88 returned home slightly sunburned but happy nonetheless.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1988

We the members of the Class of 1988 of Westwood High School, Westwood, Massachusetts, county of Norfolk, make this will and revoke all previous wills and codicils.

FIRST

We leave to the Class of 1989 all those college applications.

SECOND

We leave to the Class of 1990 the Junior/Senior Prom.

THIRD

We leave to the Class of 1991 to their own sophomoric behavior.

FOURTH

We leave to Mr. Kodzis the Class of 1992 with instructions to get them off to a good start.

FIFTH

We give and appoint all the rest of our estate as follows:
I, Bryan Aaron, leave to Clint Draper my Z and to Brian Spellman my spare change.

I, Wesley Alleyne, hereby leave to WHS my outstanding presence and beauty!

I, Adam Alves leave to the Junior boys the honor to uphold the reputation that we, the Seniors, worked so hard to achieve.

I, Cheryl Baggeroer, leave to Kate Malloy and Hania Khuri their own car; and to Jen, Molly, and Julie, shamrock shakes.

I, Michelle Barry, leave to Kieran McCarthy a Five-O; and to Murfl, Len, Dina, Cheryl, Tish, Jim, etc., Good-Bye.

I, David Borden, leave to Mr. Topalian the Drunken Hero robot.

I, Ann Brady, leave to WHS all of Jenny McCoy's smelly lunches that were left over in my freshman locker.

I, Alan D. Brazier, leave to WHS my collection of heavy metal records—which I dearly treasure.

I, Nancy Bride, leave to Mr. Milan and "No Parentheses" staff one cotillion ticket in the place of 40 copies of "No Parentheses."

I, Diana Butters, leave to Adam Alves, Brian Grady, Doug Grady, and Tom D'Espinosa all my calculus tests and quizzes.

I, Leslie Calvagne, leave to WHS the fond memory of my glowing personality . . . Good luck, '88!

I, Mark Carey, leave to Mrs. Staiti, a delicious lumberjack breakfast at Bickford's: scrambled eggs, large OJ, toast.

I, Tara Carey, leave a blue label to Danielle Ford.

I, William Carrabis, leave to THE BAND the nice sound of my sousaphone playing.

I, Robert Casey, leave to the underclassmen my incredible instincts.

I, Julie Clinton, leave to Jen T., Molly M., Cheryl B., Jill G., Mic N., Jen R. One Brown Bear and one "For Sale" sign; and to the "The Guys" one Hoover vacuum cleaner.

I, Jeff Collins, leave to all future classes freedom from science projects; and to Mr. Milan, "The Wasteland" and a glass of grappa.

I, Julianne Conley, leave to Heather Mc Lellan M's t-shirt.

I, Todd Creamer, leave to Mr. Calvin Topalian my thumbs.

I, Jennifer Cummings, leave to Christa Kremer my evil nun "habit."

I, Tom E D'Espinosa, leave to Tim H., Jon F., Brian G., Matt S., and Dan S. a big metal barrel.

I, James Dobra, leave to the high school secretaries, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs.. Kallenberg, and Mrs. Stirling, a Pepsi and a Diet Pepsi.

I, Clint Draper, leave to anyone who wants it-my parking space.

I, Keenan E. Driscoll, leave to WHS track teams the best of luck in future seasons.

I, Christopher Esposito, leave to Mr. Tucelli's morning gym class more weights for the continuation of agony, to the 1989 school store the curse of locker mirrors, and to Doug Grady a burnt, sweaty and torn Illini shirt.

I, Sue Federico, Michelle Martin and the Rest of Us leave to the "Hoodsies" all the good times and memories we have shared and the more to come . . .

I, Lindsay M. Fink, leave to Mr. Kodzis the job of keeping the golf team's reputation of excellence.

I, Dave Foehl, leave to Mrs. Staiti all my Led Zeppelin tapes and viscine.

I, Jeffrey Friedman, leave to the Class of '88 my soul. If they can find it, they can keep it; and to Nancy Bride, I'm returning the cotillion ticket, but she can keep copies of "No Parentheses."

I, Jill Gary, leave to Kris (Lon) White my parking space, to Kate Kane a bottle of pink champagne to share with the Cuban, and to Julie Morrison the stress of being Senior Class President. Good Luck, Julie!

I, Susan Gearty, leave to Mr. Marx's 1987 chemistry class all the good times and humor he shared with us.

I, Tina Gentile, leave to the gang my old, messy locker; to Mrs. Runci a peaceful and quiet L.C., and to Mr. Rook a case of stress pills.

I, Stacy Gerulskis, leave to Kristine, Travis, and to "Red", well, you know what I leave you . . .

We, Jay Goldfarb, Jason Lee, and Tim Nolan, leave to Mr. Beurman one free lunch.

I, Doug Grady, leave the following songs: to KS "I Won't Forget You;" to SL, BP "Where Have All the Good Times Gone?" to RN, MR, SL "Cherokee"; and to MB, BQ "Wanted Man."

I, Christine M. Greenhow, leave to Mr. Topalian my English book; to the science department, my science project; and to all sophomores, juniors, and seniors, freedom from the science requirement.

I, Lisa Guglielmi, leave to Jen Fink my old locker, and to Mr. D., a quiet peaceful next year.

I, Stephen B. Haines, leave to WHS all the books I have collected throughout the years and to Jill White, my dimples.

I, Christina Hall, leave to Julianne Conley, ALF 32, James Taylor and Cat Stevens tapes; and to Kara Cunningham, an Iron Maiden tape.

I, Daniel Halperin, leave to the Class of '88 and to WHS the best of happiness for all and for all a final ATD.

I, Brett A. Henderson, leave the science wing staircase to Mark Carey, which now has a bed.

I, Julie Hennigan, leave to Jeff Collins, a copy of the book Room With a View and the movie tape, so that he can watch it over and over again.

I, Siobhan Hoban, leave to Mrs. DesPres my carrot remains.

I, Madeline E. Hulme, leave to Mrs. Clement the phone duty in the health room.

I, Kara Jenkins, leave to Colleen Towne and the C-Guard, the legacy of Humpty and the "Kara Jenkins 20 Min. Work-out" tape. To all my friends: Chinese Fire Drills, T.P., Storytime, trips to New Pond, (and Buckmaster), happiness, love; and McBoo, the tip bucket.

I, Kate Kane, leave to The Cheatas a great coach, Gina Mudda.

I, Calvin Kennedy III, leave to the students of WHS the memories of Cassanova, the quickest car that ruled the parking lot—"67 Nova - V Chevy II."

I, Christa Kremer, leave to Jen Cummings a Missionary Man.

I, Steven L. Lane, leave to Gregg Sudduth a bowl of grits, a burnt Confederate flag, and a real car.

I, Amy Letourneau, leave to Kim Gill the map of Rhode Island and to the cheerleaders a coach as great as Miss Rice.

I, Joseph Layden, leave to Julie, Cheryl, Jen, Molly, Gregg, Steve, and Mark my towel. Thanks for coming, guys.

We, Jason Lee, Jay Goldfarb, and Tim Nolan leave Mrs. J. Staiti fond memories of our class. We'll call if we ever need a lawyer.

I, Karin Liljestrang, leave to Wendy Cain my old locker; to Mr. Topalian, my toys for his closet collection.

I, Erin Lynch, leave to my friends the memories of all the good times we had together at WHS.

I, Debora Malouf, leave to Mr. Tuccelli enough girls to form a girls' field events team.

I, Angela Malvone, leave to Mr. Rook all the cookies in the world and the best of luck to the Class of '88!!

I, Jane Marshall, leave to Jen Scibilia the sole ownership of the MVP bench player award; and to Mel Fannon, fun with "Mr. Chemistry."

I, Michelle M. Martin, leave to the senior class all the good times and memories that we have shared. Good Luck, Class of '88.

I, Dennis Mason, leave to me everything.

I, Ellen McCusker, leave to Mike DiBlasi a Plenty-Pak of Big Red.

I, Jamie McDonough, leave to the Class of '88 many fun but not destructive parties.

I, Scott McIntyre, leave to the elite of WHS the memories and the headaches.

I, Heather McClellan, leave to Jennifer Aquilina all the F. H. Mastas.

I, Edward J. McMellen III, leave to Mr. Kodzis my golf skills, and to the Class of '88 all the memories.

I, Molly McMillin, leave to Matthew Scarano an ugly scarf, and to Cheryl, Julie, and Jen a big towel.

I, Vincent Micale, leave to Lesley my prized history seat so that she will not have to sit alone and can sit with Maddy.

I, Janet Mullen, leave my locker to my little brother Peter and his friends.

I, Andy Mulligan, leave to Adam Alves a new nickname.

I, Cheryl Murphy, leave to the underclassmen the "art" of mastering the game.

I, Romell Nandi, leave to Mr. Topalian a bottle of minoxidil.

I, Michelle Niles, leave to Kara O'Donnell and to anyone else with enough patience my babysitting job.

I, Christine O'Donnell, leave to the Class of '88 lots of good luck.

I, Brian Quinn, leave number 13 to Craig Dalrymple for hoop.

I, Brenda Rago, leave to Carolyn Roth E.M., B.M., and good luck.

I, Sue Romaine, leave to Mr. Rook locker parties.

I, Mark Rosenberg, leave to Peter Mao and the track team my chewed-up toothbrush to help keep up their oral hygiene.

I, Brent Rosenblad, leave to WHS the mushroom joke.

I, Matt Scarano (Dex Man) leave to Mr. Rook good luck.

I, Sara Seward, leave to my favorite senior, Kara O'Donnell (K.O.), my locker #262 and my reputation.

I, Christine Silva, leave to the Class of '88 good luck.

I, Robert Smith, leave to Al Brazier, one of the Jon Bon-Jovis precious hairs.

I, Brian Spellman, leave to all the fortunate #5; and to everyone else, my bill.

I, Dawn Stewart, leave my best wishes, many laughs, and good times to the Class of '88.

I, Gregg Sudduth, leave to Steve Lane, my warm boots in order to start him on a new and better way of life.

I, David Sullivan, leave to the upper court yard the "Valiant" as a geranium planter.

I, Christine Towne, leave to Colleen Towne her own telephone line.

I, Mark Thurmond, leave all my love and happiness to my family.

I, Jen Tschirch, leave to Julie monopoly pieces; to Molly and Cheryl 6 cases of D. P.'s; and to Steve, Mark, Jay and Gregg a box of tissues.

Class Poems

What have we done that's not been done before?
This path in past tread, this self-same course run
By high hope held youths their lives just begun
Now ours beginning that path to explore.
We'll look as they looked on print pages of yore;
Pose-fixed, smile-stiff "The Class Basks in the Sun,"
"Six Soapy Car Spongers," "The Game Barely Won,"
Each frozen framed face of days nevermore.
This way's well-worn which we walk in routine
Through hallways still echoing footsteps now past
And stair wells to bells we mount between class.
Desktops reflecting the first to the last.
But just as they marked their pathway through time
So will we with memories left behind.

Christine Greenhow

We began our journey four years ago
The Green Years of our lives, always the best
Study hard, prepare for every test
Sharpen our skills, learn to write like a pro
Off to a college soon would we all go
Yet school is more than facts and figures; lest
We forget, we are soon to leave the nest
It is a time for friends, a time to grow
The loss of innocence, the gain of poise
We thought we knew all; often did we fall
Yet good times will always outweigh the bad
Westwood's ears shall never more hear our noise
Grades, hopes, dreams, and friendships - high school was all
To seniors soon to be both glad and sad.

The Best Is Yet To Come . . .

Remembering the theme of "The Best is Yet to Come," seniors painted pennants of the colleges they will be attending in the fall. The Green Years staff counted superlative votes, Mr. Beurman and members of the Class of '88 decorated, and the Dance Band practiced, all in preparation for the Senior Banquet to be held in the WHS cafeteria.

The night arrived, and it was an occasion to remember. Amy sang beautifully, and dinner was delicious. Thanks again to Mrs. Rosengarten, Miss Dillon, and our senior class officers for making the banquet such a success.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held on May 20, 1988, at the elegant Sheraton Tara in Milford. Karin Liljestrand was chosen prom queen, and her deserving court was represented by seniors Chandra Williams, Jen Brown, Julie Clinton, Sue Gearty, and juniors Sue Sheppard, Lisa Tunney, Linda Randlett, and Tanya Massaro. Although most prom-goers chose to ride in traditional limos, the new mode of transportation this year was Winnebagos. Either way, everyone arrived in style and had a lot of fun. We won't forget pre- and post-prom parties, Brett's T.V., the "spacious" dance floor, and Jill "taking care of" the prom record, The Best of Times. Thanks to the junior class for providing such a memorable evening.

Class Day

Class Day, 1988, was a memorable occasion. Awards were given to deserving students for their academic, athletic, and service accomplishments. The highlight of the ceremony was the dedication of Green Years to Mrs. Dorothy Saltmarsh. From the Class of '88, a special thanks to all who were there for us along the way.

Graduation

On a windy day on the sixth of June, the members of the Class of 1988 were transformed into Westwood High School alumni. It was with a mixture of joy and sadness that we looked upon the end of our high school days. Four years had gone by so fast. As we said goodbye to one stage of our lives, we turned our eyes ahead to a new beginning for us all.

COLLEGE CREDIT.

Credit for course work isn't the only hard part about college. Paying the bills is sometimes difficult and that's when you need our kind of credit.

We provide a full program of student loans.

We offer both HELP

Loans for eligible scholars and PLUS Loans and
VALUE Loans for parents.
The rates and repayment schedules conform to nationwide practice.

This means, in order to stand apart, we have to do more. And we do.

For instance, you can expect faster turn-around time on approvals. You can also count on personalized service including sound answers to your questions and more. This is especially helpful if you're just starting a college career.

So start today and learn more. Discover why so many credit us with the best student lending program around.
